

Florida PBA's Treasurer Ernie George and Executive Director David Murrell call attention to the sign that says "This 'Officer Down' sculpture is sponsored by the Florida Police Benevolent Association."

These are letters, photos, and other mementos from family members of fallen officers. These items were placed inside of time capsules that were inserted into the Memorial statue.

Sculptor Michael Jernigan (kneeling) makes final preparations to the statue prior to the unveiling ceremony.

Dade County PBA Director of Public Relations Stephanie Womble and PBA President John Rivera go over the final details prior to the Memorial ceremony.

As part of the joint Honor Guard, State Law Enforcement Officers stand as sentries to the Memorial prior to the ceremony.

Members of the PBA Joint Honor Guard post the Colors during the ceremony.

PBA President John Rivera welcomes the crowd to the solemn ceremony.

Dade County PBA Chaplain Al Lopez delivers the Memorial Ceremony Invocation.

Lt. Governor Jeff Kottkamp addresses the crowd during the ceremony. Governor Kottkamp led the Pledge of Allegiance for the ceremony.

President Rivera makes his opening remarks for the ceremony.

Representative Will Snyder, a former law enforcement officer, addresses the crowd during the ceremony. Representative Snyder was the House sponsor of the resolution authorizing the Memorial.

Senator Victor Crist, Chairman of the Senate Criminal Justice Appropriations Committee, addresses the crowd during the ceremony. Senator Crist was the Senate sponsor of the resolution authorizing the Memorial.

Senate President Jeff Atwater, son of an FBI agent, addresses the crowd.

Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services Charles Bronson, the only active law enforcement officer on the Florida Cabinet, addresses the crowd.

